Charities and giving - What's new

Make sure you are using the correct version of Form T3010

The Canada Revenue Agency has released version 24 of Form T3010, Registered Charity Information Return, to reflect new reporting requirements.

If you file your annual information return using the downloadable PDF, make sure you choose the correct version of Form T3010, depending on your fiscal period ending.

Charities with fiscal periods ending on or before December 30, 2023, should file their T3010 using version 23.

Charities with fiscal periods ending on or after December 31, 2023, must file their T3010 using version 24. If your charity sends us an outdated version of Form T3010, we will not accept the return for filing. If we do not receive the correct form, the charity's registered status may be revoked.

Filing your annual information return online using My Business Account (MyBA) or Represent a Client ensures that you are automatically presented with the correct version, depending on the end of your fiscal period. For more information on how to sign up for MyBA, visit our page Access our online services for charities.
